SAMPLE ITINERARY

SPRING 2027

TOUR

Leicester or Northampton

here we come!

Leicester and Northampton are two fantastic destinations for a youth rugby tour, offering world-class rugby heritage, competitive fixtures and plenty to enjoy away from the pitch. Situated in the heart of England, both cities have rich sporting traditions and provide an unforgettable setting for a rugby tour.

Leicester is home to the legendary Leicester Tigers, one of the most successful rugby clubs in Europe. Just down the road, Northampton boasts its own proud rugby tradition with the famous Northampton Saints, inspiring a vibrant club scene that offers more exciting opportunities for touring teams.

Beyond the rugby, there's plenty to enjoy in both cities. In Leicester, you can explore the historic Cathedral and the King Richard III Visitor Centre, while Northampton offers beautiful parks, cultural attractions and a lively town centre. With their central location, both cities are also perfectly placed for day trips and excursions across the Midlands.

With top-class rugby opposition, two iconic professional clubs and a wide range of activities off the pitch, Leicester and Northampton deliver the perfect blend of sport and sightseeing. Together, they make an ideal destination for a memorable rugby tour that combines competition, team bonding and lasting experiences.

Let's go.....

"You have been incredibly helpful and flexible throughout and all your suggestions and advice were spot on."

Without doubt the easiest tour I've had to organise and definitely the best one! Tomasz the driver was a top guy as well. Thank you again; absolutely brilliant!"
